

What would the Waisoi Project Look Like?

These images show what parts of the Waisoi Project would be visible.

View from Nasevou District School (photo taken 2009)

Predicted view of proposed project after mining ends but before rehabilitation starts

View from Delailasakau (photo taken 2009)

The Waisoi mine area would be rehabilitated at the end of mine life.

Various studies are taking place to assess the type of vegetation that could be planted and seen from these locations.